“ Just like to mention that I am more then glad to have had the opportunity to know u even if indirectly. I want you to know that if there is something i am sure of is that u r a very strong person and how resilient u r, I always keep ur fam in my prayers and pray to God to fill that void and have u at peace with the passing of ur father. There is no better feeling then to know that our special someone has gone home to be at peace with our father. No more tears no more pain eternity lies in the wake of his passing. Yet some day we will all will reunite in the grace of our heavenly father. With love we send hugs and kisses in hope it has comforted u and urs..###imported-begin###Brndaliz ###imported-end###

“ Thank you Grand Dad for creating the Foundation and the Pyramid of our FAMILY Structure. Without YOU... There would be NO me. Without YOU... Our FAMILY structure you helped create would not have No HISTORY, No Love, No Pain, No Good Times, No Bad Times, and overall moments that made every family member who we are today.

Your actions and your words contributed to a variety of things that made us who we are in this present time today.

You taught me the values of being a stand up respectable man. A man of GREAT character and a man of class. You taught me to always be honest, be loyal, be real, and be true to myself and others.

I LOVE YOU Grand Dad. Always and Forever more. Thank you for everything you brought into my life and our FAMILY.

“ Mrs. Jones, Mr. Jones, Delmar Jr., Derrick, Durrell & Family - John 14:1-4 encourages us to let not our hearts be troubled. Indeed there is a prepared place for us, "...That where I am, there ye may be also". Praying that the Peace of God, the Comfort of the Holy Spirit, the Love of Christ and the Power of His Resurrection rest on your hearts and renew your spirits. Hoping the beautiful memories you share are a healing balm applied liberally when you are sad. Be encouraged in knowing "When the perishable has been clothed with the imperishable, and the mortal with immortality, then the saying that is written will come true: "Death has been swallowed up in Victory." (1 Cor 15:54) Please know you are loved and lifted in prayer.##imported-begin##Kwanza##imported-end##

“ Deb, Delmar, Delmar Jr., Derrick and Durrell, I love you all. My deepest and heartfelt sympathy to you and your family in the passing of your dearly beloved Father and Grandfather. Praise GOD for all of your precious memories....may they warm your heart in the days and weeks to come. Earth has no sorrow that Heaven cannot heal. GOD goes to great lengths to redeem, comfort and prepare HIS children to come home. To be absent from the body is to be present with the LORD. I know that GOD's Great Love will give you peace in the days ahead. HE will tenderly comfort you(II Corinthians 1:7)for HE is the GOD of All Comfort. GOD Bless You!! “ Sharon,
It's been a long journey for your Dad, you and your family. God has his way of determining the time to make the transition. It was your Dad's time. He no longer have to suffer, he can now rest in peace. I have been down this road twice and it is not an easy one, but God will pull you through it all.

Our prayers are with you and your family. With Deepest Sympathy.

“ Dear Family, On January 26, 2011, the Master walked in His garden, plucking flowers along the way and He plucked our loved one to add to His bouquet. Our hearts at first were broken, at the loss of one so dear; but the tears just washed our eyes, so we could see His way more clear. “ Dear Family: Although I didn't know Mr. George personally, I can certainly relate to your loss for I, too, lost my father some years ago. Death is a terrible thing and our worst enemy because it separates us from our loved ones. However, Our Loving Creator has promised that he will soon destroy not only death, but the one who causes death, the Devil...forever!! (1Corinthians 15:26, Hebrews 2:14). Our loved ones who have died will not be forsaken for the Bible teaches us that "...the hour is coming when all those in the memorial tombs (graves) will hear his voice and come out..." (John 5:28,29). Yes, we will see them again! (Isaiah 25:8, Job 14:14,5) May Jehovah God's promises help to make your pain a little easier to bear, knowing he will do all that he has said, for he cannot lie (Titus 1:2). My deepest sympathy to you.###imported-begin###joyce jones###imported-end##
