“ I was Harry & his families neighbor on Laurenwood st.in Wayne for the best part of 25 yrs. We'll all miss his greetings & friendship. He has been taken away to be with JESUS. My prayers are for his wife & two boys that must remain here on earth that they will someday be with Harry. No one knows the grief associated with the loss of a loved one till it happens. My wife Ruth was taken to be with the Lord four weeks ago also. Bless you Blair Family.##imported-begin##Chris Sucoe##imported-end##

“ dear Rich, brother and Mrs. Harry i will never forget Harry. When i first came to the plant and i was worried about getting fired,daily. he looked at me and said these words, they told me i would be fired in a week and that was 30 yrs ago. Just keep coming on time and everyday and you'll be fine.And everyday if he saw me he said, you made it another day. i made it for nine almost ten yrs and i will never forget him,ever. i will miss him and if there i ever anything i can do for your family i will. To God be the Glory!###imported-begin###Angelina Canty###imported-end##

“ The prayers of my family as well as our Rawsonville family go out to all of you. Harry was a very special person to us and will be missed. I remember him talking about his place he was building north of here and am glad he had a chance to retire and enjoy it. It was a joy to share his love of cooking, his family and life with him. May God bless and comfort you all.##imported-begin##Afreida Wade##imported-end##
