“ Dear Family: Although I didn't know Mr. Owens personally, I can certainly relate to your loss for I, too, lost my father some years ago. Death is a terrible thing and our worst enemy because it separates us from our loved ones. However, Our Loving Creator has promised that he will soon destroy not only death, but the one who causes death, the Devil...forever!! (1Corinthians 15:26, Hebrews 2:14). Our loved ones who have died will not be forsaken for the Bible teaches us that "...the hour is coming when all those in the memorial tombs (graves) will hear his voice and come out..." (John 5:28,29). Yes, we will see them again! (Isaiah 25:8, Job 14:14,15) May Jehovah God's (Psalm 83:18) promises help to make your pain a little easier to bear, knowing he will do all that he has said, for he cannot lie (Titus 1:2). My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##

“ Alice,
We are thinking of you and praying for your strength. We know that God is smiling on you for the loving way that you took care of your father. You all were a blessing to each other. Cherish the precious memories. With Love, Sympathy, and prayer that God will comfort and strengthen you. Hattie and Brenda from Dumas,
