“ May the hope at Isaiah 25:8 bring the Thomas family much comfort, here God assures us that death will be swallowed up or removed from all the earth. This is something that we can look forward to in the near future.##imported-begin##Ariel##imported-end##

“ To Aunt Mattie and the rest of the family. I feel blessed that I had the good fortune to meet my cousin Henry, and spend some time with him each time he visited us here in California. He was a gentle man who seemed to give off an aura of peaceful contentment as he sat watching his favorite movies. I am sad to know that he will no longer be with us, but happy that he must surely be up and about in Heaven right now. May God give each of you a spirit of peace as you get through your period of loss.##imported-begin##Stephanie Trapp##imported-end##

“ Be comforted that Henry was one of God's chosen. It was not by mistake that Henry was situated in a condition where he was able to live a righteous life. No doubt Henry's thoughts were often of God. My prayer is that I will be blessed to meet Henry on the other side. As Henry would often say, "Oh Yeah!"

“ To my Sister Mattie and Family, my heart is filled with sadness for our terrible lost. I regret not being able to be there with you in this one of our darkest hours. Circumstances do not permit me to be able to make the trip at this time. Although, I am not there in person, I am with you in spirit and I am praying for your strength. James 5:16 says that "Confess your faults one to another, and pray one for another, that ye may be healed. The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much". Please know that my prayers are with you and that I pray your strength in Lord Jesus and that he provides you with the means to weather this storm. I love you - and may God bless and keep you.##imported-begin##Tina Smith##imported-end##
