“ *I am so very sorry to read of your loss. When we suffer a loss we often feel helpless and alone, I know I did. What I found comforting was encouraging words from Jehovah found at Revelation 21: 3, 4. “ Dear Family: May I please offer my sincere condolences on the death of your loved one, Mr. Henry. Death is so hard to contemplate, so unnatural for us because it is our enemy. It separates us from those we so dearly love. Thankfully, our loving God is mindful of these things and he has already made provision to restore the life our loved ones by means of a resurrection (Acts 24:15). For now, Mr. Henry sleeps in God's memory. But, in God's due time, he will call Mr. Henry and he will awaken from death's sleep at His command (John 5:28,29). "Death will be no more"...God has promised, and he 'will certainly wipe the tears from all faces (Isaiah 25:8). May you find comfort in God's word of Truth. May it sustain you in the days ahead and bring you inner peace knowing that God will do all that he has stated (Titus 1:2) because he cares for you (1Peter 5:7) My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##

“ May the hope of Psalms 34:18 bring the Butler family much comfort during this time, God’s word assures us that he sees the difficulties and hard times that we go through. He will help you and your family in this time of sorrow. We can also look forward to a time when death will be no more (Revelation 21: 3, 4). Taking in accurate knowledge of the living God Jehovah assures us better times ahead.##imported-begin##Ariel##imported-end##
