“ May the hope at Isaiah 25:8 bring the Williams family much comfort, here God assures us that death will be swallowed up or removed from all the earth. This is something that we can look forward to in the near future.##imported-begin##Ariel##imported-end##

“ Dear Family: No matter how old our loved ones live to be, no matter how long they are with us, it is never long enough because we love them so much and it breaks our hearts when death takes them from us (Psalm 89:48) Those who gave our lives beauty live in our hearts forever. Mr. Herbert will always be with you in the lessons he gave, the life he shared, and the love he showed. May all your beautiful memories of him remind you of a life well lived. May you find comfort also in the Bible's promise of the resurrection hope found at John 5:28,29 and also life without death found at Isaiah 25:8 and Revelation 21:4. Our dead loved ones will live again according to God's command (Isaiah 26:19) and will, in God's due time, live out their days here on earth the way He originally intended..."even life forever more". (Psalm 133:3, Psalm 37:29). May God's purposes for our loved ones bring you comfort and hope. (Titus 1:2; 2 Cor. 1:3,4) My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##

“ I was so sorry to read about the loss of Herbert and I would like to extend my condolences to your family. Having to cope with the loss of a loved one can be difficult, but God has promised a time when we can see our loved ones again (Isaiah 26:19; John 5:28,29). Until that time please know you can rely on God for comfort (Psalms 55:22; 1 Corinthians 1:3,4).

Respectfully,

“ I am so very sorry to read of your loss. When we suffer a loss we often feel helpless and alone, I know I did. What I found comforting was encouraging words from Jehovah found at Revelation 21:3, 4.
