“ To : Kim, Angie & Joey

Losing someone we love is never easy to accept, and sometimes it must seem as if the pain is almost too much to bear. But I believe that your love will outlast the pain of the grief you're feeling... I believe that you have a place deep in your hearts where treasured memories will always live. And one day those memories will be a tremendous comfort to you. Until that day when all you can smile again. I hope it helps to know how sorry I am and how much I care. Look to the higher hills because the Lord never puts anymore on any of us, that we can bare!! Kim always remember that I'm there for you, whenever you need me.

Love you all-

“ *To the Sykes Family;
My condolences are with you and your family. I will be praying for all of you during your recovery period. Mr. Sykes will definitely be missed by all that were priveledged to know him. In the physical he is knowlonger here, but his memory will last forever. There is no more pain for him, instead it is replaced by the love of God and Mrs. Sykes that welcomed him into the gates of Heaven.*

May God bless you all.##imported-begin##Taj Franklin##imported-end##

“ Kimberly,

I know this is a difficult time for you and your family but take comfort in knowing that your dad is in the arms of the one who made him. We are here but for a moment and it is difficult to let go of the physical person. Your father lives on in you. Just look in the mirror and you will see the good that was in him living inside of you. (That stubbornness too!)

I love you and I am here for you.##imported-begin##Toni Walton##imported-end##
