“ Please accept this letter as my expression of sympathy over the lost of your dear loved one, Mr Howard. I am writing to share with you the marvelous hope that the bible holds out for a future resurrection. The scriptures plainly show that death is our "enemy" that will be destroyed by God (read 1 Corinthians 15:26). May the God of Tender mercy be a source of comfort to you during your time of bereavement. Sincerely, Jackie Brezzell###imported-begin##Jackie Brezzell###imported-end##

“ May the hope at Isaiah 25:8 bring the Fletcher family much comfort, here God assures us that death will be swallowed up or removed from all the earth. This is something that we can look forward to in the near future.###imported-begin##Ariel###imported-end##

“ Dear Family: Death of a loved one is always hard to bear, but when it is a loving father, the pain can be overwhelming. I just wanted you to know that others understand and share your pain, but especially does God know and feel your pain (1Peter 5:7). We are encouraged to "throw our burdens on him and he will sustain us" (Psalm 55:22) Although there are tears of grief today, God promises a joyful tomorrow without DEATH, mourning, pain, tears or sorrow (Revelation 21:4). In time, may your hearts find comfort in what God has promised, for it will shortly come true (Titus 1:2) My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##
