“ Dear GF Chris,

I wish we could have been with you. We all love you very much and have so many fond memories of Jack. I will remember always and forever when he taught me the double dutch bus so many years ago. He made me feel graceful and grown up and I loved him for it. It is at times like this when we really take time to reflect on the moments both large and small that people give us as gifts. You were blessed to have him in your life and we are grateful you brought Jack into ours. I love you, and I think of you every day. May my energy bring you strength and perseverance as you grieve and survive. Know how very much you are loved. Katherine##imported-begin##The Bertolini Family##imported-end##

“ I send love and comfort to my loving friend, Barbara and her family. I knew Jackie through the eyes of Barbara, who loved, respected and honored her brother all her life. The stories she shared spoke of a relationship built on love and understanding and the memories will last her forever. She didn't just lose a brother, but a father-figure, a loving man. Her opportunity to return this love was lived out as she cared for him in his last days. Barbara, he will never be far from your mind or your heart. Love is indeed eternal.

“ I remember Jack as always smiling, soft-spoken, very gracious and ever optimistic. Not once in all the times I saw him over the years did I hear him speak a word against anyone. Jack handled his illness with great grace and courage. I am very sad he is gone.##imported-begin##Melanie Deeds##imported-end##

“ Dear Family and Friends of Jack:

I have known Jack for many, many years through Chris who was my college roommate, and am aware of the important role he played he played in your lives. He provided a great deal of warm, fun and generous memories which I trust will provide much comfort in this time of sadness.##imported-begin##Larry Lee##imported-end##

“ Jack had a peaceful inner calmness under his good humor and easy wit. We always enjoyed talking with him because of his humorous and sometimes sardonic take on many topics. We thought he handled his illness with a great deal of grace. We will miss him, and know that his passing is a great loss to those who had the privilege of knowing him better than we did.##imported-begin##Eric and Karen Pope##imported-end##

“ I have known Jack for nearly all of my life. Chris and my mother worked together for many years and became close friends as a result. When our family was invited to Chris and Jack's home, I was always welcomed with a gracious smile and warmth by Jack. When I last saw him, his body was giving way to his condition, yet that warmth was still, and forever, inside him.

I am so incredibly sorry for your loss, and for us all. The world is less bright with his light extinguished, but I know I will always be a little warmer, and a little more reflective, through having know Jack.##imported-begin##Michael Brown##imported-end##

“ Henri and I send this passage by Hannah Szenes for Jack's family and Chris.

There are stars whose light reaches the earth only after they themselves have disintegrated and are no more. And there are people whose scintillating memory lights the world after they have passed from it. These lights which shine in the darkest night are those which illumine for us the path...##imported-begin##Arlene Silverman##imported-end##
