“ *To the family,
I am so sorry for your loss. Did you know the bible gives the hope of death not occurring on this earth anymore? At Revelation 21:4 it says “And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.” If you would like to know more about this hope, talk to any Jehovah’s Witness that you reach. I will keep you in my prayers###imported-begin##Brenda Jones###imported-end##*

“ May the hope at Isaiah 25:8 bring the Reid family much comfort, here God assures us that death will be swallowed up or removed from all the earth. This is something that we can look forward to in the near future.###imported-begin##Ariel###imported-end##

“ To the Family of James Reid II

May you find strength in your faith, comfort in God's love, and peace in knowing that we are praying for all of you.

We would like to share this poem with you.

His Journey's Just Begun

Don't think of him as gone away -

His journey has just begun

Life holds many facets

The Earth is only one

Just think of him as resting from the sorrows and the tears

In a place of warmth and comfort

Where there are no days and years thin

Know he must be wishing that we could know today how nothing but our sadness can really pass away

And think of him as living in the hearts of those he touched

For nothing loved is ever lost-

And he was loved so much.

“ Hey Uncle....I miss you much...I'm going to miss our talks and hearing you say "Hey Bamma" every time you call or I call you. I believe in the resurrection and I know I will see you again because Jehovah promised, but it's still hard to grasp. My heart is broken. I love you so much. Until we meet again.

Love always,

“ Junior, I was saddened to learn of your passing. I offer my sincere condolences to the Reid family. Although, my heart is heavy now. I will always remember the good times we had with happiness and joy. I remember the cabarets, clubs, house parties and dinner cruises (Shrine's cabaret in DC, Spirit of Washington Cruises, and who can forget the Detroit West Club). You were a great person and I look forward to seeing you again someday. Rob###imported-begin##Rob Loving###imported-end##

“ It is with sincere sympathy that I acknowledge the loss of your loved one. I only met James twice, and from both of those brief encounters, I know he was a very special person with a kind heart. Please know that you are in my thoughts and prayers.

Someone once told me, "when you lose someone you love, you gain an angel you know".

I know no words can ease your pain, but it is my prayer that you are comforted by this thought when you remember the good times you shared with your loved one.##imported-begin##Michelle Y. Parham##imported-end##

“ I'm saddened to read of the loss of Mr. Reid. It's so important to reflect on the happier memories you shared with him. Look at photos and videos; it might be painful at first. But, those memories will help you to heal. "Throw your burden upon Jehovah himself, and he himself will sustain you". Psalms 55:22 Prayer to God is not an emotional crutch. It is real and vital communication with the "God of all comfort", who will comfort us in all our tribulation". 2 Corinthians 1:3, 4; Revelations 21:3-5, Acts 24:15.##imported-begin##Mrs. Malone##imported-end##

“ Dear Family: No one can deny the certainty of death, but we all need comfort and relief when faced with it in our lives. (Psalm 89:48). You will never forget your loved one, James, but, neither will God forget him. Even now, in the face of grief and sorrow He offers us true comfort and reassurance. He promises us that 'He will swallow up death forever and wipe the tears from all faces (Isaiah 25:8). Not only that, but he promises to restore the life of our departed loved ones by resurrecting them from the 'sleep' of death (John 5:28, 29; 11:11-14). May your hearts find comfort, and hope from what God has said will shortly take place. You can trust that it will be so, for he cannot lie! (Titus 1:2) My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##
