“ May the Lord be with you and the Gilbert family in your hour of need. Psalm's 121 "lift up thine eyes onto the hills from whence cometh thy help, for thy help cometh from the Lord." James may the memories of the life you shared with your father warm your heart, and may God give you peace and comfort.

God Bless

“ Geraldine, one thing is for sure, your husband LOVED you, you truly are a Proverbs 31 woman, and for as much as the two of you loved one another, J.C. loved his family. That was so obvious. J.C. is now in that beautiful city and forever in our hearts and memories. The kindness and compassion J.C. expressed to everyone in my family will NEVER be forgotten. We love you, Tonya, Curtis, Shawn, Aunt Verna, Andre' and LaNita..dearly.##imported-begin##Natalie Gilbert##imported-end##

“ To the Gilbert Family:

I want to express my heartfelt condolences to all of you for the loss of your precious JC. Mrs. Geri, you're like a second mom to me, which meant JC was like a surrogate dad to me. Even though I never officially met JC, I felt I knew him well through your many funny and happy stories about him. I pray for strength for all of you today, now, and always. For we all know that one never truly gets over the loss of someone so dear to us, the Lord just provides us with the strength to see each day a little brighter. I can do all things through Christ, who strengthens me. I love Mrs. Geri and if there is ANYTHING you need, I'm just a phone call away. God Bless you, Tanya, James, and Shawn.

Love Always,

“ Tanya and Famiy,
It will be the little things
that you will remember,
the quiet moments,
the smiles, the laughter.
And although it may seem
hard right now,
it will be the memories
of these little things
that help to push
away the pain
and bring the smiles
back again.

I'm here if you need me.

God bless you!

“ JC you were my first love. When you married my favorite cousin/sister Geraldine, and I was your flower girl in your wedding I thought I was the luckiest little girl in the world. I always told Geraldine how handsome you were and I was so proud you were now family. My head says you are in a better place and will never feel pain again, I just pray my heart catches up. I can't imagine you not in our lives anymore even though I know you still are, just not physically. I prayed last night so hard for you, Geraldine, Tanya, Curtis, and Shawn, because I can't even imagine how my dear loved cousins are dealing with this. When I think of my Bowles/Gilbert family I will always say a prayer and a special one for Geraldine who has always been like a sister and friend to me. I once or maybe more, told Geraldine how lucky a woman she was to have the best three children in the world, Curtis , Tanya, and my Shawn, three blessings that not many experience. I love all of you so much. When I came and visited you at the hospital and I was alone in the room, just you and me, I knew you felt my presence. Remember I told you, while brushing my hand in your beautiful hair,"JC you are still the most handsome man in the world, please wake up and agree with me", but you didn't. I cried alot that day, trying so hard that you could not see that. I cried in fear, now I cry because God is taking care of you now and I am a little jealous, but with time that too shall pass. Look at us when you have time and keep us strong and happy. I love you my dear JC. Your cousin, Shelley###imported-begin###Shelley Bradshaw###imported-end###

“ JC, you are truly going to be missed. I have always looked up to you and and was so very proud to have you as my cousin. Memories of your life, of your works and your deeds will continue on for years to come; your legacy will live on through others, your beautiful wife Geraldine and children; Tanya, Curtis and Shawn; Aunt Verna, brother Andre and sister Nita. You have fought a good fight and finished your course and kept the faith. (2nd Tim. 4:7) May you rest in peace. Much love to the entire family.##imported-begin##Paula Hunt (1st cousin)##imported-end##
