“ May the Almighty God strenghten you during your time of breavement. We were sadden by the news of James homegoing. We are all classmates and alumni of Grambling State University 1972-1976. We thank God for the opportunity we had last fall to see and visit with "Hound" at homecoming, not knowing it would be our last. We will continue to pray for you and the family##imported-begin##Thomas & Janice Lucas##imported-end##

“ May God continue to bless and keep you during your time of loss.May his gentle touch be a comfort today and in the days to come. The GSU family has lost yet another mighty tiger, one who won't easily be forgotten. Having known Hound at GSU was truly an experience, always smiling and always in great spirit. The gridiron has lost a true legend. Rest in peace mighty warrior and mighty tiger.##imported-begin##Patricia Harris##imported-end##

“ My sincere condolences to you all. We have all experienced the loss of a loved one to the enemy death, and the emotional pain is all the same. Our Heavenly Father Jehovah feels the pain that you are going through. He holds out a promise that one day soon he will wipe all tears of sorrow from our eyes forever and death will be no more (Revelation 21:3-5) Additionally, He promises that all those in the memorial tombs (graves) will hear His voice and come out. “ Dear Family: A faithful servant of God once asked: "If an able-bodied man dies can he live again?"(Job 14:14) All through the Bible the Scriptures give a resounding "YES". Death at any age is an enemy of mankind because it separates us from those whom we love. However, Our Loving Creator has promised to destroy death forever (Revelation 20:14). He also assures us that the time is coming, very soon now, when "all those in the memorial tombs (graves) will hear his voice and come out". (John 5:28,29). With that accomplished, Jehovah God will then "wipe out every tear from their eyes and DEATH will be no more, neither mourning, nor outcry, nor pain be anymore." Yes, those sleeping in death will, in God's due time, live again (John 11:25,26) May God's Word comfort you in the weeks ahead (2 Cor. 1:3,4) May you be reminded of his promises which are soon to be a reality because Jehovah God cannot lie (Titus 1:2). My deepest sympathy to you.###imported-begin###joyce jones###imported-end###

“ Our prayers are with the family during this time of loss. We had the pleasure of meeting James Hunter and his family thru my father Otis Canty. My father was really proud of James and all the work he did with the community after he left the Detroit Lions. I remebered him for his charming personality and great smile. May the Lord comfort the family and continue to bless them. The Canty Girls###imported-begin##Elizabeth Canty###imported-end##

“ My thoughts and prayers are with the whole Hunter family during this great time of loss. My deceased brother Mark and I's lives were forever changed by having the opportunity to know James from our days of employment at Vic Tanny Executive Health Club. We both consider the life and faith of James to be an example for all to follow. May the God of all comfort, grace, and compassion through Jesus Christ richly bless you all during this time of grief.

In Christ,
