“ *I am so very sorry to read of your loss. When we suffer a loss we often feel helpless and alone, I know I did. What I found comforting was encouraging words from Jehovah found at Revelation 21:3, 4. “ ISALAH:53

Who hath believed our report? and to whom is the arm of the LORD revealed?

For he shall grow up before him as a tender plant, and as a root out of a dry ground: he hath no form nor comeliness; and when we shall see him, there is no beauty that we should desire him.

He is despised and rejected of men; a man of sorrows, and acquainted with grief: and we hid as it were our faces from him; he was despised, and we esteemed him not.

Surely he hath borne our grief, and carried our sorrows: yet, we did esteem him stricken, smitten of GOD, and afflicted.

But he was wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities: the chastisement of our peace was upon him; and with his stripes we are healed.##imported-begin##RANDY AND PAMELA COMER ##imported-end##

“ I wish to offer my condolences to Ms. Ethel Portis and Pamela Comer and the entire Portis family. In this time of lost words cannot express the sorrow Valerie and I are feeling for you. However, I recently heard that James rededicated his life to Christ, I was very happy to hear this. This is what makes God so great. No matter where you come from or how you have lived we can repent and accept Jesus as our Lord and Savior. James leaving is a lost to the family but, the joy is that he is will be at peace and have eternal life. Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted. Matthew 5:4
