“ I send condolences in your loss. May you find some comfort knowing that our heavenly father "will swallow up death forever and wipe the tears from all faces" (Isaiah 25:8) At that time, we will forget our grief as it gives was to the joy of happy reunion with our dear lost loved ones. May these thoughts comfort you in this time of loss.##imported-begin##Jeanne##imported-end##

“ May the hope of Psalms 34:18 bring the Oubre family much comfort during this time, God's word assures us that he sees the difficulties and hard times that we go through. He will help you and your family in this time of sorrow. We can also look forward to a time when death will be no more (Revelation 21: 3, 4). Taking in accurate knowledge of the living God Jehovah assures us better times ahead.##imported-begin##Ariel##imported-end##

“ Your Dad had a long FULL life and we have very fond memories of him and the Oubre family. We remember Mr. Oubre, always outside working in the yard, watering the grass and inviting us over for some authentic Louisiana Gumbo.

We are so thankful and extremely grateful that he took the time to attend both, Marilyn (1993) and Robert's (2006) funeral. He never forgot us and we never forgot him.

Take comfort in knowing that so many people adored your Dad and that your family has the love and support of many.

*Love,
The White Family (Tina, Champ, Bootsie, Poncho, Cisco, Benita, Sharrnita, Sean and David)*

I really do wish that I had known sooner. I would have loved to attend his services. I'm sorry I couldn't be there.

“ I wish I could be there to celebrate the life of my Uncle James "The Rabbi".

To my cousin's: James JR., Gail, Steve and Michelle. I love you all very much and extend my love and support at your time of loss.

Your family has always been special to me. Growing up I spent so much time with you all I always felt loved and welcome by Uncle James and the rest of the family.

To my mom, aunts and uncles, there is nothing like the love of a brother or sister. It's a bond that you all shared and passed down to all of your children, which makes the Oubre family special and united in presence and spirit. I am just a phone call away.

Love Tina, Airis and Aysha.##imported-begin##Alethea (Tina)##imported-end##
