“ I was so sorry to read of the lost of your dear loved one.

It seems so unfair that death should have the power to take away someone we love.

And when it happens, the thought of never again being able to talk, to laugh with, or hold your loved one can be most difficult to bear. Many are resting now, until their name is called in the “resurrection”. Oh yes, Jesus Christ boldly promised: “The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his [Jesus’] voice and come out.” (John 5:21, 28, 29)

Since Jesus made the promise, it is safe to assume that he is willing and able to do so. His father, Almighty God has promised us at Revelation 21:4, “he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and Death will be no more.....”

May you find comfort and faith in these scriptures for he “cannot lie.”

“ To Joyce and children, my sincere sympathy goes out to all of you. Jim was my boss at the Health Dept. in Lansing, and I couldn't have asked for a better person for a boss. Jim was a very dear and understanding man. I am so sorry that I was unable to attend the funeral but I have had a number of health problems, i.e., open heart surgery, a stroke to name a few. My heart goes out to all of you and I will keep you in my prayers. My very best wishes##imported-begin##Catherine Endres##imported-end##

“ So sorry to hear about your loss, the bible makes it clear that God did not originally intend for humans to die. He created the first human pair Adam and Eve to live forever and they would only die if they disobeyed his instructions Genesis 1:28##imported-begin##LDMSO##imported-end##

“ My sincere condolences to Jim’s family. I worked with Jim for many years and was always impressed with his people skills, kindness and practical approaches to dealing with the daily hassles of being a manager. He always had a ready smile and sense of humor too often missing in workplaces these days. You should be proud of his legacy.###imported-begin###David Rector###imported-end##

“ To the Buchanan Family, I am sorry for your loss. May you find comfort and hope through God word the Bible. Isaiah 25:8 states that God will swallow up death forever and he will wipe the tears from all faces and death will be no more. This is something that we all can look forward to in the near future.##imported-begin##Sierra Sargent##imported-end##

“ *To the Buchanan Family,
My prayers are with you in the loss of Jim. I remember him fondly as a boss and friend who was kind and respected. He will live on in your memories. Jesus said "Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid." “ To the James Buchanan Family - Please accept my condolences for the passing of Jim. I use to work with him in Lansing approximately 17 years ago. I worked with him for about 4 years. He became my friend. He was a wonderful man and I fondly started calling him "Jimmy B!" Till this day he is still fondly called Jimmy B by other work associates. He had a great sense of humor and loved to golf. I have kept up on how he has been doing these past years through friends. I was sad to hear when he turned ill. I will miss him. He was really a good man and understood the meaning of family. All my love and prayers are being sent to his family. God is good all the time, and all the time (even in tough times like this) God is good. Stay strong in Christ and know that many work associates are thinking about and praying for you.###imported-begin###Gloria Strong###imported-end###

“ Dear Buchanan family, Please accept my sympathy over the loss of your dear loved one, Mr. James. The bible gives a satisfying answer to what happen to us at death. The wise man Job expressed his hope this way when he said at (Job 14:14)"If an able body man dies can he live again..."This is a resurrection hope that is held out in the bible, and one that I wish for Mr. James. May the God of tender mercy be a source of comfort to you during your time of bereavement.###imported-begin###Jackie Brezzell###imported-end###

“ Dear Family: May I offer my sincere condolences on the death of your loved one, Mr James. It's difficult, most times, to find words to comfort someone who has lost a dear loved one. Inside our hearts hurt too. I've found great comfort from reading Jesus' words at John 5:28,29, where he promises to resurrect those who have died. Also, Revelation 21:4 where our Loving Heavenly Father has promised that soon death will be no more. In fact, anything causing us mourning, outcry, tears or pain will done away with. May your hearts find peace and comfort in the days ahead knowing that our Loving God will truly keep his word to us and all that he has promised will come true. (Titus 1:2). My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##

“ My thoughts and prayers are extended to you at this time of loss. Our Grand Creator comforts us during this difficult time. (Isaiah 41:10 & 13) For HE says, “Do not be afraid, for I am with you. Do not gaze about, for I am your God. I will fortify you. I will really help you. I will really keep fast hold of you with my right hand of righteousness.’ For I am your God, I am grasping your right hand, the One saying to you, Do not be afraid. I myself will help you.’##imported-begin##Mrs. Malone##imported-end##
