“ To Mrs. Turner, Kathy, Connie, Lisha and the entire Edwards Family:

Today, I was saddened by the announcement of the passing of your loved one. The many memories, active life that he led will always bring joy and tears to your eyes. May it help to comfort you in some small way to know that friends, like myself, share your loss and you are in my prayers as you go through closing this difficult period.

“ I am so very sorry to read of your loss. When we suffer a loss we often feel helpless and alone, I know I did. What I found comforting was encouraging words from Jehovah found at Revelation 21: 3, 4. “ I am so sorry to read of the loss of Mr. Edwards. The Bible describes death as our enemy, but our Loving God promises to undo the tragic effects of death. In John 5:28-29, God promises to resurrect our loved ones back to life. We can look forward to a time when ‘death and pain will be no more’. (Revelation 21:4) May God be your true source of comfort and hope during this difficult time, and may you receive the comfort you need to endure the days ahead.##imported-begin##Mrs. Malone##imported-end##

“ when God's will is done earth, people will not get sick or die because of inherited sin and imperfection. The dead in God's memory will have the opportunity to live forever, for the Bible promises: "There going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and unrighteous." ( Acts 24:15 ) You have my heartfelt sympathy.##imported-begin##Deborah Gipson##imported-end##
