“ Dear Family: No matter how old our loved ones live to be, we are never ready to say 'goodbye' to them. They have brought such richness to our lives. We have learned so much from them and have made many beautiful memories with them. It seems that they should go on living forever. It seems so unfair that they should go and leave us behind, brokenhearted. In the days ahead, as you reflect on the life of your precious one, Mr. James, please be reminded that our Loving God is also interested in and cares for you and him (1Peter 5:7). He promises that soon death will be a thing of the past (Revelation 21:4,5) and we will have the joy of seeing our precious loved ones again (John 5:28,29). May your hearts find comfort and reassurance in knowing that God truly cares for you and will, therefore, do all that he has promised (Titus 1:2). My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##

“ Dear Cobbs family, please accept my sympathy over the loss of your dear loved one, Mr. James Odell. I am writing to share with you the bible's wonderful hope of a future resurrection. The wise man Job expressed his hope this way when he asked at (Job 14:14) "If an able body man dies, can he live again..." This is a hope that is held out to all mankind, including Mr. James Odell. May the God of tender mercy be a source of comfort to you during your time of bereavement.##imported-begin##Jackie Brezzell##imported-end##

“ May the hope at Isaiah 25:8 bring the Cobbs family much comfort, here God assures us that death will be swallowed up or removed from all the earth. This is something that we can look forward to in the near future.##imported-begin##Ariel##imported-end##
