“ Dear Family, please accept my sincere condolence. While I don't know your family, I do know the pain, grief and feelings of helplessness that the death of a loved one can bring. At such times, we seek comfort from God's word...2Corinthians 1:3,4 helps us to understand how God and Jesus feel about death. Jesus even grieved at the loss of his friend Lazarus,John 11:33,35 tells us that he "gave way to tears." Even though Jesus knew something wonderful was about to happen, he still felt the pain and sorrow that death bring. Jesus' grief encourages us...it teaches us that Jesus and his Father, Jehovah, hate death. The account of Lazarus teaches us that resurrection in a reality and not a myth. Jesus raised Lazarus in front of a crowd of eyewitnesses. This miracle softend the hearts and minds of unbelievers...they put their faith in Jesus. We too can trust in Jesus and Jehovah, John 5:28,29 tells us that "all those in the memorial tombs will hear his (Jesus) voice and come out." We look forward to the days when we can see our dead love ones again. If you would like to further discuss God's many promises of a paradise earth, please feel free to send me an email.##imported-begin##Cynthia Mills##imported-end##

“ I was so sorry to hear about Uncle James' passing. It's hard to know exactly what to say in circumstances like these. My heart goes out to Uncle James' immediate family - Grandma Lloyd, Sabrina, Maurice, James Jr., Aunt Mary and everyone! While I'm saddened to see him depart, I'm thankful his physical suffering is over. Your family will be in my thoughts and prayers. I will never forget how Uncle James and Aunt Mary let me stay at their house several years ago when I was moving back to Windsor. It was very gracious because it wasn't something they had to do. I wish you all peace and love as you grieve during this very difficult time. Please let me know if there's anything I can do to help/support from abroad.

“ To my brother in law James Lloyd It's so inconceivable to me that I would be writing this farewell to you so soon in life. In earthly years in my thinking "Too young/too soon". We are all cognizant of our appointed day and we get it in our heads, but how we resist in our hearts. Selfishly, we'd keep you always if we could, but we lovingly release you to your Savior Who loves you best. Here on earth you suffered unimaginably and our hearts broke for you and the family as one and all released you into GOD'S PERFECT PEACE We know James that you loved us all and we pray You know how very much you were loved in return.##imported-begin##Beverley Carter##imported-end##

“ It saddens me to know that your gone, but warms my heart to know your now at peace. In the few times that we shared I could see how much you loved James, and I will see to it that he doesn't forget who his grandpa was. Rest in Peace James, love Alicia and your grandson James Jr.##imported-begin##Alicia Murray, James Carter Jr##imported-end##

“ I just ask God to wrap his hands around my family right now, my mother has lost her only sibling and her only brother. My cousins are now without their father. My grandmother lost one of her children her only son. And I lost my only uncle. This is the time that we all have to come together. All we have now are the good memories we shared with him. I can see him now coming in doing that dance lol. You fought a hard long battle, God needed you more than we did. He called his son home. No more pain your pain free! You can now get the rest that you needed.##imported-begin##Ciara Lee##imported-end##

“ Uncle James I will always remember the times when aunt Mary lived with us and you would always give Tonya, Tracey and myself money to go to the store or taking us to the "D" to your mom's house on the weekends when we were little. You will be sadly missed but NEVER forgotten. My heart goes out to the family with love and sadness.##imported-begin##Tamara Carter Gawne##imported-end##

“ *My Heart is so heavy
My mind somewhat at ease
For I know in my heart
God has given you peace.
No more pain or sorrow
Your battle is won
God reached out and said
Come home, my son.
I will always cherish the love
That we shared together
Those memories will remain
In my heart forever*

Love Mary
