“ I was so sorry to read of the lost of your dear loved one.

It seems so unfair that death should have the power to take away someone we love.

And when it happens, the thought of never again being able to talk, to laugh with, or hold your loved one can be most difficult to bear. Many are resting now, until their name is called in the “resurrection”. Oh yes, Jesus Christ boldly promised: “The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his [Jesus’] voice and come out.” (John 5:21, 28, 29)

Since Jesus made the promise, it is safe to assume that he is willing and able to do so. His father, Almighty God has promised us at Revelation 21:4, “he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and Death will be no more.....”

May you find comfort and faith in these scriptures for he “cannot lie.”

“ To the family and friends, I am sorry for your loss. May you find comfort and strength from God word the Bible. Isaiah 25:8 states that God will swallow up death forever and he will wipe the tears from all faces and death will be no more. This is something that we can look forward to in the near future.##imported-begin##Sierra Sargent##imported-end##

“ We offer our heartfelt condolences to the family of Mr. Cole. He was a watchman over us, provided assistance to us, advised us and always made us smile. He mentored my son, helped my daughter buy her first car, and tried (very hard) to help me through my first college math course :) We love him and truly miss him.

Love Brian, Maria, Sarah and Thomas

“ To the Family of Mr. James Cole. I give you my sincerest sympathy in your loss. I will miss Mr. Cole, he was a kind an gentle spirit with a smile and a touch that would melt butter.

To be absent in the body is to be present with the Lord, so I know Mr. Cole is now one of the angelic gatekeepers for the Lord. Halleluyah!!! We praise and thank God for Mr. Cole for a life well lived and how he has touched so many.##imported-begin##Cassandra W. Thomas##imported-end##

“ To the Cole Family,
I will truly miss Mr. Cole. He was truly kind, loving and a gentleman at all times. I will miss him cutting off the lights and ushering us out if we hung around the church too long after rehearsal and other events. God bless you at this most difficult time.##imported-begin##Tamara "Tammy" Woods, Fellowship Chapel##imported-end##

“ Dear Cole family, Please accept this post as my expression of sympathy over the loss of your dear loved one, Mr. James Tillman. I am writing to share with you the marvelous hope that the bible holds out for a future resurrection. The wise man Job expressed his hope this way when he said at (Job 14:14)"If an able body man dies, can he live again..." This is a hope that I have of seeing my mother again, and it is what I wish for Mr. James. May the God of tender mercy be a source of comfort to you during your time of bereavement.##imported-begin##Jackie Brezzell##imported-end##

“ Dear Family: It is not easy to cope with the death of a loved one and can be quite a challenge to move on without them in our lives. Although it may be hard to contemplate or even envision at present, still, Our Loving God has promised that soon he will 'wipe the tears from all faces and 'death will be no more (Revelation 21:4; Isaiah 25:8). Not only that, but he also promises to resurrect our loved ones who have died, including Mr. James.(John 5:28,29). May this Scriptural thought help to lessen the pain in your hearts knowing our Father will do all that he has promised, for he cannot lie (Titus 1:2). My deepest sympathy to you##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##
