“ To My Friend, it has been such a joy to be with you and your family today. Meeting you and Jason's friends has be such a blessing to me. I'm so very proud of you and Joe for bringing such wonderful and respected Men in this world(Job well done;Richie, Damien, & jason). Jason truly preached his own Funeral and I just pray that we can be half of the person that he was, and if so then we will see him again. thank you & God Be With your family.##imported-begin##Kim Gause##imported-end##

“ I'm deeply devistated about Jason's passing. I had met him back in 97 when he was painting his cousin Franks shop in Ypsilanti, When he first started his dreads. His poetry and art skills were outstanding then as they are today. He has left a permanant imprint on my life as well as everyones he touched. Dont be sad that he's gone, be happy that he lived doing what he loved to do. That reflects on you as parents, showing that you did a good job. Not a day goes by that I wont have the fondest of memories of him. Hold strong to your faith, knowing that one day you will see him again. You have my deepest condolences....##imported-begin##Kasey "Bunny" Mathews##imported-end##

“ As I try to write a message, I sit here in such a state of shock and sadness. Unable to even come up with the right words to say. This is unimaginable, my dear friend JoAnn. In your deepest moments when you are searching for a place to move the pain.. please know that my heart and soul can take on your grief.. if only for a moment to give you peace. There has to be a reason for this... I don't believe God would have let him go if there wasn't one. Bless your soul and your mind my dear.##imported-begin##Desiree Bobby##imported-end##
