“ Dear Family: When a loved one dies, no matter how old or how young they may be, it affects every fiber of our emotions, our very being. That's because losing a loved one to death brings us face-to-face with the realization that they are gone...all too soon... and we are helpless to do anything about it! (Psalm 49:7).But there is One who is not 'helpless' in the face of death...Jehovah God. And, he promises us in his Word, the Bible, that soon he will lovingly wipe the tears from our faces because death will be no more. (Revelation 21:4) Instead, there will be tears of joy as he proceeds to awaken our loved ones from the sleep of death (John 5:28,29; 11:11-14) What a wonderful time that will be when we are reunited with our loved ones and can look forward to living out our days, here on earth, as God originally intended, in peace (Psalm 37:11,29) free of sickness (Isaiah 33:24) and yes, free of death! (Isaiah 25:8) My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##

“ To the Family and Friends of Jeffery, in these “critical times hard to deal with,” we may at times feel overwhelmed by the pressures of life. (2Timothy 3:1) But we do not have to face such challenges alone. Our Heavenly Father is willing to reach out and grasp our hand. Like trusting children, we can hold on to his mighty hand, confident that he will lead us in the right direction and help us in our time of need. __Psalm 63:7, 8. All of you are in my Prayers.##imported-begin##Bobbie Smith##imported-end##

“ What a blessing it has been to know Jeff and to work with him with the feeding program at I Am My Brothers Keeper. Whenever our church would serve, Jeff was always willing to assist us in any way and to ensure we had whatever support we needed. He will be truly missed. The LWC Family will miss him. We can honestly say that we loved Jeff. Nevertheless, God loved him best.
