“ *I am so very sorry to read of your loss. When we suffer a loss we often feel helpless and alone, I know I did. What I found comforting was encouraging words from Jehovah found at Revelation 21: 3, 4. “ Although I did not personally know your dear loved one, please allow me to express my condolences. At John 11:25,26 it states: " Jesus said to her: "I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me even though he dies, will come to life, and everyone that is living and exercises faith in me will never die at all..." Jesus was assuring Martha of the resurrection hope. I would like to encourage you to read your Bible, pray, and meditate during this time so that you may gain the understanding that Jesus was expressing to Martha during her time of grief.##imported-begin##Mrs. Jefferson##imported-end##

“ Dear Family: May I offer my sincere condolences on the death of your loved one, Jeffrey. Death is an enemy that robs us of our loved ones, but God has promised to destroy death...soon! (1 Cor. 15:26). God also promises that soon millions now sleeping in death will be resurrected (John 5:28,29). Mankind will then be able to live out his days here on earth the way God originally intended "even life forever more (Psalm 133:3) May you find comfort and inner peace knowing what will shortly take place (Titus 1:2) My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##

He will help you and your family in this time of sorrow. We can also look forward to a time when death will be no more (Revelation 21: 3, 4).
