“ Dear Family: When we first hear about a loved one who has died, we plunge into denial and despair. As we become better able to reflect on that person we are moved into a thoughtful silence, a quiet sadness, a longing for one more day to be able to see, touch and talk with our loved one again. Little by little we begin to remember that he not only died, but he lived also and that the beauty he gave of himself, while living, will remain in our hearts forever. I'm sure that's how you feel about your loved one, Mr. Jerry. But just as you can never forget him, neither can our Loving God forget him. He has promised us that our loved ones (including Mr. Jerry) will live again, not only in our hearts, but on an earth made beautiful by Him. (John 5:28,29) We will then be able to see, touch, talk to and enjoy the company of our loved ones forever! (Psalm 37:11,29) All conditions causing death will be eliminated and even death, itself, will be destroyed (1 Corinthians 15:26; Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:4). Mankind will then be able to live out his days the way God originally intended... 'even life forever more'. (Psalm 133:3) What a beautiful time that will be. And just think, Our Loving God has promised it will be and we know He cannot lie (Titus 1:2) May these Bible promises bring you comfort in the days ahead as we await the fulfillment of His word. My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##

“ *Death leaves a heartache that feels unhealable, love leaves a memory that's unstealable....
It seems so unfair that death should have the power to take away someone we love. And when it happens, the thought of never again being able to talk, to laugh with, or hold your loved one can be most difficult to bear.
But know that...
"For men are not cast off by the Lord forever.
Though he brings grief, he will show compassion,
so great is his unfailing love.
For he does not willingly bring affliction or grief to the children of men". Lamentations 3:31-33*

Isaiah 40:18-31

*Do you not know? Have you not heard?
The Lord is the everlasting God, the Creator of the ends of the earth. He will not grow tired or weary, and his understanding no one can fathom.
He gives strength to the weary and increases the power of the weak. Even youths grow tired and weary, and young men stumble and fall; but those who hope in the Lord will renew their strength.
They will soar on wings like eagles; they will run and not grow weary, they will walk and not be faint.##imported-

“ Jerry my Brother
Velma and Family
Our lives will go on without you Jerry, NOTHING will Ever be the same. We have to hide our hearts
When someone speaks your name. Sad are the hearts
That love you. Silent are the tears that fall.
Living without you is the hardest part of all.
You did so many things for us all
Your heart was so kind and true
And when we needed someone we could always Count on you.
The special years will not return
When we are all together, But with the love in our hearts
You'll walk with us forever
Love you Jerry
