“ *Dear Jackson Family,
Sorry to hear about the passing of Bro. Jackson. Me and my wife have known your family for many years, and you all are wonderful people. My wife remembers when Kenny would pick up her brother(Mann) and take him out in service, also the wonderful meals the family would cater. And I can not count the many fond memorys with Chris doing street corner and going on trips together. Now we are both married. Those traits of kindness the family has were also in your father, he was always kind and had a mild way about himself. I know Jehovah will contine to bless you all with the strength you need to make it through this difficult time. (2 Cor. 4:7) As we look forward to seing him again in a world free of sickness and pain. (Rev. 21:3,4)###imported-begin###Corey###imported-end###*
