“ *Dear family, I am so sorry to read of your loss and would like to extend my deepest sympathy for your dear Mr. Acoff Sr. I can't imagine the pain you feel. I pray that you find comfort in the promise that God does not take our loved ones (James 1:13) and that soon there will be no need for grieving (1 Corinthians 15:26) and that God will comfort your family as you await seeing your loved one again (2 Corinthians 1:3-7 and Acts 24:15). “ To the Acoff Family,

My husband and I first met Mr. and Mrs. Acoff in 1996 when we purchased our home on Hartwell St from them. Mr. Acoff and our family kept in touch for a brief time afterwards but soon lost touch. We are still in the home on Hartwell and thought of him from time to time...especially when in the garage as we still take advantage of some of his handy work! (-: As I looked on the PYE website in search of 'someone else' I was shocked to see that Mr. Acoff's name was also listed here. We are deeply saddened to hear of his passing. May God continue to Bless and comfort his children and family during this time. Mr. Acoff will always be remebered...##imported-begin##Joella Bush##imported-end##

“ I am very sorry to hear about your loss. The bible makes it clear that God did not originally intend for humans to die. Almighty God has not only the power but also the desire to resurrect persons whom he chooses. Jesus christ said: Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out. John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15##imported-begin##deborah salley##imported-end##

“ It seems so unfair that death should have the power to take away someone we love. And when it happens, the thought of never again being able to talk, to laugh with, or hold your loved one can be most difficult to bear. Jesus Christ boldly promised: “The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his [Jesus’] voice and come out.” (John 5:21, 28, 29) Since Jesus made the promise, it is safe to assume that he is willing and able to do so. His father, Almighty God has promised us at Revelation 21:4, “he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and Death will be no more.....” May you find comfort in these scriptures and faith in them for he “cannot lie.” (Titus 1:2)##imported-begin##Dorothy Boyd-Carroll##imported-end##
