“ Dear Junebug,

Of the many great memories, the most significant are of our childhood on the Eastside of Detroit. As kids growing up together, we knew there was something special and magical about our childhood. As adults we reminisced so much about those wonderful years. And it was still magical. Something you would always say was “Man we had a great childhood! We picked a great time to be alive! Life is good!” We will be forever thankful for having a friend like you. We will never forget you Junebug. Indeed, Life is very good!
