“ I was so sorry to read of the lost of your dear loved one. It seems so unfair that death should have the power to take away someone we love. And when it happens, the thought of never again being able to talk, to laugh with, or hold your loved one can be most difficult to bear. Many are resting now, until their name is called in the “resurrection”. Oh yes, Jesus Christ boldly promised: “The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his [Jesus’] voice and come out.” (John 5:21, 28, 29) Since Jesus made the promise, it is safe to assume that he is willing and able to do so. His father, Almighty God has promised us at Revelation 21:4, “he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and Death will be no more.....” May you find comfort and faith in these scriptures for he “cannot lie.” (Titus 1:2)##imported-begin##Dorothy Carroll##imported-end##

“ May the hope at Isaiah 25:8 bring the Jackson family much comfort, here God assures us that death will be swallowed up or removed from all the earth. This is something that we can look forward to in the near future.##imported-begin##Ariel##imported-end##

“ It can be difficult to describe the feelings we experience, when we lose someone we love so much. Revelation 21:3-5, Our Grand Creator promises to do away with pain, death and sorrow forever. Matthew 28:18-20; all authority has been given to Jesus who provides comfort. John 5:28 & 29, "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out". Luke 23:43 Jesus also said, "You will be with me in paradise". 1 Thessalonians 4:13-14###imported-begin###Mrs. Malone###imported-end###

“ Terrance, so sorry to hear the news of your loss. In times like this, there is nothing that can be said to remove the pain of the loss of a parent. I hope you and your family can find comfort in knowing there are many that are praying for peace for you and your family. Kent (SWA).###imported-begin###Kent Banks###imported-end###
