“ Butch,

Where do I start? I could probably fill up two guestbooks with all the memories. I feel that we should still be laughing about the Greektown/Hart Plaza weekends, the chicken sandwich beach trips, being your roommate at the dog races...should I go on? you were always there to take me to the emergency room so that you could laugh about my dilemma, helping with my homework when I was in college even though you didn't know what I was talking about. There are also many things that I thank you for. (you know what they are) I'll miss you.

Love, your cousin, Sheryl##imported-begin##sheryl##imported-end##

“ Man, Butch...you just had to go and leave us! But God needed another angel and you were chosen. I'm going to miss you so much. You've been a part of my life since birth and you will always be in my heart. So many happy memories - your smile, your laugh, your calm demeanor. I'm going to remember Pennsylvania St and Southfield and barbeques and reunions, babysitting and housepainting, holidays and snow days in Detroit. So many memories, so many good times. Yep, you were the black teddy bear of the family. Handsome, clean and fresh - that was you. Heck, you had "swagger" before the word even came out! Thank you for always being a positive part of my life, for looking out for and after all of us (especially Mom and Dad) and representing to me an example of a hard-working brother of character, who took care of his business and his family - no matter the circumstances. I love you Butch and I'll see you on the other side.
