“ Dear Family, While I don't know your family, I do know the pain, grief and feelings of helplessness that the death of a loved one can bring. At such times, we seek comfort from God's word...2Corinthians 1:3,4 helps us to understand how God and Jesus feel about death. Jesus even grieved at the loss of his friend Lazarus,John 11:33,35 tells us that he "gave way to tears." Even though Jesus knew something wonderful was about to happen, he still felt the pain and sorrow that death bring. Jesus' grief encourages us...it teaches us that Jesus and his Father, Jehovah, hate death. The account of Lazarus teaches us that resurrection in a reality and not a myth. Jesus raised Lazarus in front of a crowd of eyewitnesses. This miracle softend the hearts and minds of unbelievers...they put their faith in Jesus. We too can trust in Jesus and Jehovah, John 5:28,29 tells us that "all those in the memorial tombs will hear his (Jesus) voice and come out." We look forward to the days when we can see our dead love ones again. If you would like to further discuss God's many promises of a paradise earth, please feel free to send me an email.##imported-begin##Cynthia Millsc##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences and sympathies. Death of a family member is difficult to bear but the common thread that mends us all together is deep emotional pain and mixed feelings we experience when someone we love dies. Please be assured that God is a refuge to those needing and desiring His comfort and direction. The scriptures reassure us; "God is for us a refuge and strength, a help that is readily to be found during distresses." (Psalms 46:1). May the Bible also give you hope for the future also because it says this about our loved ones who fall asleep in death; "and I have hope toward God, which hope these men themselves also entertain, that there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous." Acts 24:15.##imported-begin##V Williams##imported-end##

“ May the hope at Isaiah 25:8 bring the Watson family much comfort, here God assures us that death will be swallowed up or removed from all the earth. This is something that we can look forward to in the near future.##imported-begin##Ariel##imported-end##

“ I can't tell you how much it grieved me to hear of John's passing. I had seen and talked to him several times on the day of his passing. For the past 4-5 yrs I worked with John almost every day. His smile and laughter was infectious. I appreciated all his hard work, never complaining and always a smile. He took care of us all at the plant!!! What a fun loving guy to be around, I will miss him!!! As I am sure his family and friends will too. It was comforting to me to know he was on his way to church to testify of his Lord savior. I am thankful for knowing John and being able to work with him at the Warren Transmission Plant. I thank you for loaning him to us!! Now rest assured and be comforted that he is with the Lord.

Sincerely
