“ I am so very sorry to read of your loss. When we suffer a loss we often feel helpless and alone, I know I did. What I found comforting was encouraging words from Jehovah found at Revelation 21:3, 4.##imported-begin##sf##imported-end##

“ To the Williams family, On behalf of The Weaver family we wish to send out to you our heartfelt sympathy on the passing of Fatman. As a long time member of the Toros M/C, I will certainly miss Fatman's smiling face and most serious laugh. He was a very special person to whom he surrounded himself with but one thing for sure I was so glad to see him back in June. the pics that I took of him will always be a treasure to have. Know that I am here for you and your family at any given time. When things get most difficult for you, lift your hands to the Lord for he is the one that can make it alright for you. May God continue to bless you and your family during this trying time.##imported-begin##Helen M. Weaver##imported-end##

“ Dear Sheila;

It's been at least a year since you first told me of Johnny's condition, but it still comes as a shock that he is gone.

He was lucky to have you. Your care and understanding throughout his illness were both brave and awe-inspiring. I hope you can take comfort in that and in all the years that the two of you spent together.

He leaves behind a wonderful family, to whom I send my profound sympathy.

I wish you comfort--both now and during the potentially challenging times that lie ahead.

Gently,

Suzette Dexter##imported-begin##Suzette Dexter##imported-end##

“ I really wanted to be there today, but everthing went wrong. I had a mess. I want to share with you some words given to me. "At the end of the day- in this all-too short life we all share, all we really have are relationships with people we love and who love us. In light relationships, the job and career we set as goals now aren't really so important; the ladders we try to climb don't matter so much; th objects we long to posses seem utterly trivial. What really matters in the end is that special look that you share with your spouse, the arms of your child reaching up to you, the quiet comfort of being with a friend who stands by your side in a difficult time". Out of all people I wish I was there like he was for me when I was born. It's like loosing a father again.

Love you always.##imported-begin##Geraldine##imported-end##

“ My sincere condolences to the Williams family. May the God of all comfort ease your mind and heart in the days ahead. Jehovah has promised a resurrection of the dead (Acts 24:15) and he promised, the time is coming when:"...death will be no more, neither mourning, nor outcry nor pain will be anymore". (Revelation 21:3.4) Mr. Williams and many others have the opportunity to be resurrected to life on a paradise earth soon to be. God cannot lie (Titus 2:1). Trust in Jehovah with all your heart, and do not lean on your own understanding; he is the one who created us and knows our DNA to bring us back to life. It's as good as done! Keep His words close to your heart as you treasure the memory of him.##imported-begin##Liz##imported-end##

“ What moves through us is a silence, a quiet sadness, a longing for one more day, one more word, one more touch, we may not understand why you left this earth so soon, or why you left before we were ready to say good-bye, but little by little, we begin to remember not just that you died, but that you lived. And that your life gave us memories too beautiful to forget.##imported-begin##CHEVY##imported-end##
