“ My Dear Alexis,

I want to exprss my deepest sympathy for the lost of your grandfather. There is nothing I can say, at this time, to relieve you of the pain you most have and your mix-emotions. Let me say pray often when you feel your lost and please know that our Lord will see you through these trouble times. Please know that I am sending you my love. Dad!###imported-begin##Ari L. “ This is truly a huge void in our family. My fondest memory of you is when you were assigned to pick me up from school, I was about 7 (40 yrs ago) and it was Veteran's Day and we got out at 11:00 am. I got out and kept walking, got home and by the time you got there after looking frantically for me you were so scared but glad to see me when you "FINALLY" came home. That's been you for as long as I can remember, loving, caring and protective! An awesome legacy of love to leave to your children. God loves you so much better than us. Your cousin! By the way, I just missed you ~sniff~###imported-begin##Gwendolyn "Gwennie" Dorsey##imported-end##

“ To the entire Moore Family,

We are praying that in these times that our Lord and Savior will wrap his arms around each of you and give you the strength that's needed in these times. The Ross's family would like to extend our most heartfelt sympathies on the death of your lost. Just take moment and think "Memory is the only friend of Grief!"
