“ My sincerest and heartfelt apologies go out to Jonathan's family during this time of loss. I will truly miss his warm spirit, his smile, his creative energy, and his love of sharing the word of God. May the Lord hold your grief in His hands as He comforts you in this dark hour. You are in my thoughts and prayers. To Tanisha...you know...I am here if you need me.##imported-begin##Dr. I Leah-Mare Nichols AKA Miss I Leah##imported-end##

“ To Johnathan, you were one of the best young man I have had the pleasure to say I know. I will always be thankful for January 28, 2010, we both know about that day. It changed me and others. I know you aren't here but your message continues.

To Tanisha, time will heal. You are stronger than you can imagine. Know that you have listening ear and caring shoulder if you ever need it. John's light will always shine in you.##imported-begin##Rahiem##imported-end##

“ It can be difficult to describe the feelings we experience, when we lose someone we love so much. Jesus provides comforting words at John 5:28 & 29, "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out" Revelation 21:3-5, God promises to do away with pain, death and sorrow forever. Luke 23:43 He also said, "You will be with me in paradise". 1 Thessalonians 4:13-14##imported-begin##Mrs. Malone##imported-end##

“ May the hope at Isaiah 25:8 bring the Baker family much comfort, here God assures us that death will be swallowed up or removed from all the earth. This is something that we can look forward to in the near future.##imported-begin##ariel##imported-end##
