“ Dear Family: May I offer my sincere condolences to you on the loss of your father and friend. I do not presume to know exactly what you are feeling, but please know that others, like myself, understand your pain, for I, too, lost a dear father some years ago and I know it's not easy to endure the loss of a parent. It can be quite a challenge to move on without them in our lives. May your hearts, like mine, find comfort and reassurance in God's Word where he states: "He (God) will swallow up death in victory; and the Lord God shall wipe away tears from off all faces (Isaiah 25:8). May your loved one awaken to a world where there will be no more wars (John 5:28, 29; Psalm 46:9) and all that he believed in and fought for will have been accomplished by the One who is able to do all things. (Matthew 19:26) Man will then be able to live on this earth as God originally intended, in peace, (Psalm 37:11, 29) free of sickness (Isaiah 33:34) and yes, free of death! (Revelation 21:4) This is God's promise to us and it shall, without fail, soon take place. (Titus 1:2) My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##

“ To his daughters (Karla, Angela, Joann) and his brothers and sister, I am very sorry about the passing of Joseph, my cousin. I will always cherish the fond and proud memories that my dad (Solomon Brown) shared to me about Joseph's accomplishments. Warm wishes are sent to comfort in our family's lost. He will be missed by all that were in his life but never forgotten!##imported-begin##Jeffrey Brown##imported-end##

“ May the hope of Psalms 34:18 bring the Brown family much comfort during this time, God’s word assures us that he sees the difficulties and hard times that we go through. He will help you and your family in this time of sorrow. We can also look forward to a time when death will be no more (Revelation 21: 3, 4). Taking in accurate knowledge of the living God Jehovah assures us better times ahead.##imported-begin##Ariel##imported-end##
