“ It seems so unfair that death should have the power to take away someone we love. And when it happens, the thought of never again being able to talk, to laugh with, or hold your loved one can be most difficult to bear. Jesus Christ boldly promised: “The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his [Jesus’] voice and come out.” (John 5:21, 28, 29) Since Jesus made the promise, it is safe to assume that he is willing and able to do so. His father, Almighty God has promised us at Revelation 21:4, “he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and Death will be no more.....” May you find comfort in these scriptures and faith in them for he “cannot lie.” (Titus 1:2)##imported-begin##Dorothy Boyd-Carroll##imported-end##

“ May the hope of Psalms 34:18 bring the Wilson family much comfort during this time, God’s word assures us that he sees the difficulties and hard times that we go through. He will help you and your family in this time of sorrow. We can also look forward to a time when death will be no more (Revelation 21: 3, 4). Taking in accurate knowledge of the living God Jehovah assures us better times ahead.##imported-begin##Ariel##imported-end##

“ Joe, you were an amazing person. You will be missed here on earth. When we all get to heaven what a day of rejoicing that will be. When I'm flying the skies and I look into the clouds and see shining a ray of light down on us all I will know it is you.##imported-begin##Erica Mungo##imported-end##

“ Joe,

Words cannot express the sorrow I feel for the loss of your son little Joe.

With my deepest sympathy I am so sorry for your loss. Faith consists in believing when it is beyond the power of reason to believe. You have to believe that Joe was here for a reason and your connection and love for him will never be broken.

Love Always & God continue to bless you - Marsha Johnson###imported-begin###Marsha Johnson###imported-end##
