“ *To the family of My falling son,
I feel the pain you all are feelin now, so am I Juan was one of my son for at least 10years. This young man and I have laugh , played and cryed together, and now I am crying with you all. But we got to think of all the good that he gave to us all and smile with him becuase he's alright we just got to get the peace that he has now.
So please keep yours head up while you think of him; and wish for peace,and good to all of us. Pray for the loard to lift this pain from our hearts and add love and hope.*

Love You All

“ Remembering a very respectful young man who was jovial, kind, a conversationalist and a peacemaker. We will miss our neighbor dearly always saying "Hello or "Good Morning" as he walked to get his morning coffee. "Juan" could dress and match even down to his gym shoes, the colors that stood out most were red and/or black (SMILE). A down to earth greeting and a smile to his neighbors as he would sometimes stop or as he passed by our homes. May God bless, strengthen and encourage his mother as she and the Williams Family mourn the lost a very special member of the family. May you find comfort, love and peace in the arms of Jesus Christ whose arms are open to receive you and all your cares may you give to Him.##imported-begin##Mrs. Tucker & Family##imported-end##

“ May you rest in peace. You know I've been like an uncle to you and you always respected me. I'm sure you'll be greatly missed by those who got to know you as I did. Farewell my brother, and may God bless your soul.
