“ Cynthia and I were so sorry to hear of the death of Julius. Julius was not only a very dear friend but a valued co-worker. His warm and infectious smile brought so much light into the workplace. It was such a delight to visit him in his home as he always had some wonderful tasting food to share. We shall miss him greatly.##imported-begin##George Bergh##imported-end##

“ Julius and I go all the way back to CSU in the late 50's. We have maintained a friendship for over 50 years. We have not seen each other often in the last few years but he has always been in my thoughts and prayers. It was not easy for Julius during the last year but God knows how much we can bear. May God wrap his loving arms around the entire Mitchell family during this sad time. You are all in my prayers.###imported-begin##James H. Stokes###imported-end##

“ I really enjoyed meeting and working with Julius at Mt. Clemens Paint & Vinyl Operations. His friendship will always be remembered and treasured.

Every employee in the plants (Paint & Vinyl) could always count on a warm greeting with a smile, and help whenever needed. And to experience his culinary skills was always a very special treat.

Carolyn and I pray for comfort and peace during this difficult time for family and friends.

Although we are not able to be with you to celebrate his going home transition, please know that our prayers and love are with you.

One Love,

Jim & Carolyn###imported-begin##Jim & Carolyn

“ Sonny Pean...loved uncle and brother. I will surely miss you as will all. I know you are in a much more peaceful place now. I am sure you are cooking for all who are near. (I always wished that I had taken the time to learn some cooking techniques from you.) But I learned so many other things that I never told you about. (How to set a formal table setting, decorating and the elegance that fresh flowers or plants give to a room.) You always loved me like I was your daughter and one thing that I've kept near and dear to my heart was the fact that about two years ago we were talking and you told me how proud you were of me as a wife and mother.

I love you...Kaye
