“ To Keith: I wish I knew you better in life, that you could have known what kind of uncle I could be. Instead I hung on to that beautiful boy of the past, whose innocence, lack of guilt or sin made him "The perfect angel." I chose to think of you talking, playing and laughing. I realize now that it was wrong to suspend you in time, only GOD can make you an angel. It should'nt only take a mother to see through the facade of life, the illusion of beauty, and the so called hopelessness of condition. this we shoud all do. Sorry Keith, that I wasn't there for you more. I can only hope that I shall see you later. ---love,your uncle Gerald###imported-begin## Gerald McMurray###imported-end##

“ wow, unbelievable that he has died. My prayers are with you Doreen. I'm far away and unable to come the the funeral... this is a nice way to communicate and be supportive for Keith's funeral since I can't be there.

“ Dorene,
My deepest sympathy to YOU and your family upon the death of your son - Keith. I KNOW you love Keith however,
God loved him more and decided it was time to take him home for ETERNAL REST.
I pray that you will be strong during this moment in your life and that God will keep you in perfect peace. May God bless you and your family and may God keep His loving arms around you!
To give you comfort, during this time, please read the 23rd Book of Psalm.
Love ya....always.

Your friend forever,
Anne###imported-begin###Anne R. Bell###imported-end##

“ I know that although he had a life time of trials and tribulations,he was much loved by his family, and especially his sisters, brother and mother. I only met him once, but his strength of character showed through. He was a fighter, and was until the end. My love and condolences go out to the McMurray and Talley family. God bless!##imported-begin##Carol Robinson##imported-end##
