“ Words cannot express how empty it feels to not have you around. The Bible says to be absent in the body is to be present with the Lord and with that being said I know I will see you again one day on the other side. I can still remember you giving me those words of wisdom as you did from the very first day I met you at Wayne State over 14 years ago. Kenny your legacy lives on forever. Rest in peace.##imported-begin##Patrice Taylor##imported-end##

“ Love you Kenny. I have and will always love you from my heart and the thoughts of you will always be in my mind. The Lord always had blessed your life, God blessed you with a very successful life, you did go full circle from life to death to life then from life to death to everlasting life from now to eternity forever more, you are at peace with the Lord. God bless your soul. No more hurts, no more pains. Our thoughts and prays goes out to your wife and all family members and freinds. God bless you all always and forever! Love you all!

“ Having known Kenny since High School, it's really hard to accept that he has passed on. He was certainly the one to triumph over seemingly unsurmountable obstacles to embrace joy and find purpose for his life. Rest in Peace Kenny.##imported-begin##Angela Atia Tyson Ector##imported-end##
