“ Dear family,

During your worst hours know that there is someone greater than this situation. Someone who will give you "beauty for ashes" someone who will bless you through your mourning and most of all take the sting out of death which is swallowed up.

Crying may endure for a night but JOY COMETH IN THE MORNING.

With all my love and prayers,

“ To my niece Evelyn McLeod:

The loss of a close, youthful, relative is especially traumatic. I hope you and the rest of Kenneth's family are able to cope with his passing and the memory of his struggle during the past year.
