“ Your presence is missed, more than words can say. How life is but a breath, and soon goes away. How the sting of death hurts, to the very core, and the only hope we have, is you'll exist forever more, not in physical presence, but memories that stretch beyond years, and hopefully will replace our grief and our tears. We will always love you.##imported-begin##Jonathan, Marleta & Jaren Johnson##imported-end##

“ For My sister :
Reflections !

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God has laid for me
I took His hand when I heard him call
I turned my back and left it all.*

*I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to work, to play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way
I found that peace at the close of the day.*

*If my parting has left a single void
Then remember to fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss
Oh yes, my dear, these things I too will miss.*

*Be not burdened with times of sorrow
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.*

*Perhaps my time seemed all too brief
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your hearts and peace to thee
God wanted me now and he has set me free.##imported-

“ *You were always my cool Uncle Ken, thanks for spending time with me when I was younger and visiting Grandma & Grandpa. I enjoyed your recent visit and greatly appreciated you bringing Grandma to see us here in Ohio. I find great comfort in God's promise to see our loved ones again, vibrant and in excellent health. I hold you dear in my heart as I do Grandma, Aunt Iris and all my cousins. Though I can't be there in person have no doubt that my prayers are. I pray that Jehovah gives you strength to endure these sorrowful times.

“ Dear Family & Friends,

Uncle Kenneth will always be remembered by me as a man that would go the extra mile to do even the little things, like chase the icecream truck when he didn't stop by Grandma's house one summer, the smile that always said, I have a plan and here I go, or the love he always showed for his kids, family, and friends. May the God of all comfort reside with you all. We look forward to seeing you soon in good health, and have the time together that seemed to escape us all these years. Love to Aunt Iris and all my cousins during this time of lost.

“Unc I am sorry I didn't get to see you again. I remember the last time we hung out it was a good time and a great memory to have, sorry we didn't get to do it more often. You still laughing and joking, being your usual funny self. I know I will get to see you again. The bible promised that hope John 5:28,29. 28 Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice 29 and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life, those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgment.

I send my love to my family and the friends of my uncle and pray that all can find comfort in God's word at this painful time.##imported-begin##Jayme Patterson ##imported-end##
