“ May you receive the strength you need to endure the days ahead. As you reflect on the happier times you shared with Kenneth, may your tears of sadness turn to smiles. You are in my thoughts and prayers for the strength & peace that only Jehovah God can provide to help you through these most challenging times. Revelations 21:3,-5 Isaiah 26:19, Proverbs 3:5-7.##imported-begin##Liz##imported-end##

“ I am so very sorry to read of your loss. When we suffer a loss we often feel helpless and alone, I know I did. What I found comforting was encouraging words from God found at Revelation 21:3, 4.##imported-begin##s##imported-end##

I'd just met you and we hadn't had much time to get to know each other. But I know how much you were loved. I'll pray for you and your family.

“ To my dear, sweet cousin whom I have known since we were kids..despite all the issues that I have had with certain members of my dad's side of my family, you in anyway were not associated with it. I love you so much despite we haven't kept in touch with each other. God has taken you too soon from us my brother, but I know that you are in heaven where you belong and you will always be in my heart.

God bless from your cousin.
