“ Goldia,
Words cannot express how truly sorry I am for your loss, our loss. I wish that I could have been there to help provide you comfort, to find comfort in each other, but we must remember God is the greatest comforter of all. May you find peace in knowing that Kenneth is no longer in pain and find joy in knowing one day you will meet again.

“ Dear Aunt Goldia,

Our prayers are with you and the rest of the family during these trying times.

Of course we all know no matter how hard it is HE only takes the best.

Please stay prayerful. Please remember that God loves you and so do we. Weeping may endure for a night but JOY cometh in the morning.

“ Dear Aunt Goldia, you are in my prayers today. Uncle Ken will be missed so much, but with the support of your friends and family you will make it through, day by day. The last thing I told Uncle Ken was that I wanted to grow up to be just like him. He smiled that smile and said you will be better.

Love you always,
