“ Kallen:

We are so sorry about the loss of your brother. "He will wipe every tear from their eyes. There will be no more death or mourning or crying or pain, for the old order of things has passed away."

“ Kallen and Family,

When something like this happens, it's easy to get discouraged. I am praying for encouragement to overcome this difficulty.

I know that your faith is strong, and I want to encourage you to hold on to it. Faith is the evidence of things unseen. Even though we can't see a reason for what has happened, we can have faith that there is a reason in His plan.

You are in my prayers cuz,

“ May the hope at Isaiah 25:8 bring the Franklin family much comfort, here God assures us that death will be swallowed up or removed from all the earth. This is something that we can look forward to in the near future.##imported-begin##Ariel##imported-end##

“ I am so sorry to read of the loss of Kennie. The Bible describes death as our enemy, but our Loving God promises to undo the tragic effects of death. In John 5:28-29, God promises to resurrect our loved ones back to life. We can look forward to a time when 'death and pain will be no more'. (Revelation 21:4) May God be your true source of comfort and hope during this difficult time, and may you receive the comfort you need to endure the days ahead.##imported-begin##Mrs. Malone##imported-end##
