“ Praise the Lord;

I can't say that I knew your son Kevin personally however, I do see his picture that you have posted on this website. There is a clique that says "A picture is worth a thousand words" His picture say to me that he was a loving gentle teddy bear, full of laughter all the time and yes, he had JOKES. He look to me to have been a very sweet young man with a very bubbling personality.

Words cannot fill the void that has been left in your family circle at the demise of Kevin. However, I pray that you will allow these encouraging words of all his family and friends help you through this time. God is a very present help in the time of need. REMEMBER THE GOOD TIMES WITH YOUR SON!

My prayers are with the family. Jimmy, Tonya##imported-begin##Deborah Davidson##imported-end##

“ My sweet, sweet baby. You and I have grown close within this last past year, and I am thankful for every moment that you and I got to spend together. The last thing your mother said to me was that Kevin wanted to know where you were, and that he missed you. Maybe that was a clue that I slept on, to spend just one more day with you, to hold you in my arms and say I love. If you could here me now I love you and I am the one that misses you.##imported-begin##Dominique Redmond##imported-end##

“ Williams Family: I wasn't a close friend to Kevin, but I did know him. He was so full of life, and always could put a smile on my face. Kevin was known around the school, and always wore a smile. He was such an amazing young man. For the rest of his friends and everyone who knew him, this is a big shock. Kevin was a loved young man, and he will NEVER be forgotten. If there is anything I can do for the family, please contact me, on my e-mail. sweetie_pie2669@yahoo.com
