“ *Bland Family Mike, Joan, Gwen and Terrance
My heart goes out to you and the family. I just found out about Kevin. You have my deepest sympathy. I have known your family for very long time and still have great memories. Let's cherish and celebrate the time we had with Kevin. God is able to do exceedingly and abundantly above all that we could ask or think. Ephesians 3:20. I miss you all and will be in touch very soon. Love

“ Please accept my sincerest heartfelt condolences. I pray that God's grace and mercy will provide you comfort in these most trying times. I know that He is a conqueror and a healer. My memories of Kevin while bowling with your family are very pleasant. He was a very mannerable gentle, man, which can only be a reflection of the parents who raised him and the God that he served. As one who has also lost a son (also born in 1976), I can certainly assure you that God is ever-present and He knows your pain. Remember, He also had a Son whom He has not forgotten. Please know that your family will remain in my prayers. If there is anyway in which I can be of service, please do not hesitate to call upon me.

“ Joann, Words cannot express the deepest sorrow in the loss of your son Kevin. Always remember that weeping may endureth for a night, but joy will come in the morning. I know your heart aches, but continue to seek comfort in the arms of our Lord and Saviour.##imported-begin##Tamara "Tammy" Woods##imported-end##

“ *To the Bland Family..
..words cannot fully express the deep sorrow that I have for the loss of a young man that came to be a friend. Kevin and I never missed a week greeting and talking to one another. I have always had the utmost respect for him as well as others in the Bland family. He will be sorely missed and although tragic, he is in a better place.*

Condolences to all of the Bland family, and please try to stay strong in this most solemn of moments.

Peace to you.
