“ Dear Family, please accept my sincere condolence. While I don't know your family, I do know the pain, grief and feelings of helplessness that the death of a loved one can bring. At such times, we seek comfort from God's word...2Corinthians 1:3,4 helps us to understand how God and Jesus feel about death. Jesus even grieved at the loss of his friend Lazarus,John 11:33,35 tells us that he "gave way to tears." Even though Jesus knew something wonderful was about to happen, he still felt the pain and sorrow that death bring. Jesus' grief encourages us...it teaches us that Jesus and his Father, Jehovah, hate death. The account of Lazarus teaches us that resurrection in a reality and not a myth. Jesus raised Lazarus in front of a crowd of eyewitnesses. This miracle softend the hearts and minds of unbelievers...they put their faith in Jesus. We too can trust in Jesus and Jehovah, John 5:28,29 tells us that "all those in the memorial tombs will hear his (Jesus) voice and come out." We look forward to the days when we can see our dead love ones again. If you would like to further discuss God's many promises of a paradise earth, please feel free to send me an email.##imported-begin##Cynthia Mills##imported-end##

“ To my aunt, Darlene, Kevin had such a beautiful spirit. He loved his family and he showed it by spending time with us. He was just like a brother to me. He believed in looking out for his family. I will miss his beautiful smile and him telling me, "Yes Mama", his singing, rapping, and dancing. My little cousin is gone but, he will never be forgotten. His memories will always be in my heart. I will continue to keep you in my prayers. Love & God Bless Angel###imported-begin##Angelique Townsend##imported-end##

“ May the hope at Isaiah 25:8 bring the Hunt family much comfort, here God assures us that death will be swallowed up or removed from all the earth. This is something that we can look forward to in the near future.###imported-begin##Ariel##imported-end##
