“ One can never get over the death of a loved one. We can only learn to live with the loss. The Bible promises hope for the future of those sleeping in death. It says at Revelation 21:4; "death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore." As you cherish fond memories of your loved one, also know that the God of all comfort is near providing comfort and hope during this difficult time. 2Corinthians 2:3,4.##imported-begin##V Williams##imported-end##

“ I am so very sorry to read of your loss. When we suffer a loss we often feel helpless and alone, I know I did. What I found comforting was encouraging words from Jehovah found at Revelation 21: 3, 4. “ It seems so unfair that death should have the power to take away someone we love. And when it happens, the thought of never again being able to talk to laugh with, or hold you loved one can be most difficult, to bear. Jesus Christ boldly promised: "The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tomb will hear in (Jesus) voice and come out." (John 5: 21,28,29) Since Jesus made the promises, it is safe to assume that he is willing and able to do so. His Father, Almighty God has promise us at Revelation 21:4, he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and Death will be no more." May you find comfort in these scripture and faith in them for he "cannot lie". (Titus 1:2)k6s7##imported-begin##Geneva McClendon##imported-end##

“ To the Blackburn family, please accept my sincere condolence. Words cannot express the pain we feel when we lose our dear loved ones. May you find comfort through the Word of God. "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more..."-Isaiah 25:8.##imported-begin##Mrs. Coleman##imported-end##
