“ *To the Burkett family,
I'm very sorry for the death that you've experienced in your family recently. I've just been sharing a comforting scripture with you and similar individuals who have lost dear loved ones in death. John 11:25 says... "He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life."
I also agree with the bible when it says at Acts 24:15... that there will be a resurrection, of both the righteous and unrighteous!
My thoughts and prayers are with you at this difficult time.. please know that I' am thinking of you and your family during this hardship.
Thank you for your time,
Sincerely,
Caleb Aniol###imported-begin##Caleb Aniol###imported-end##*

“ Kai,

My deepest condolences to you & your family during this time. I am keeping your family in my thoughts & prayers. Always try to remember the good memories, cry often, and your heart, over time, will slowly begin to mend. You will always have my love & support.

God Bless,

“ Really good friends and good men are so hard to find. May you be comforted during this difficult time. Treasure the happy memories you've stored in your heart. Death is unnatural, because this was not in Our Grand Creator Jehovah God's purpose. Mr. Burkett can rest now. Revelations 21:3-5 encourages us: "God will wipe out every tear from your eyes, and death will be not more". That includes each and every one of your tears. Even Jesus says at Luke 23:43, "You will be with me in paradise". That will be a reality. We will see him again.##imported-begin##Mrs. Malone##imported-end##

“ When God's will is done earth, people will not get sick or die because of inherited sin and imperfection. The dead in God's memory will have the opportunity to live forever, for the Bible promises: "There is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and unrighteous." (Acts 24:15) You have my deepest for the loss of your loved one.##imported-begin##Deborah Gipson##imported-end##
