“ *My daddy would be sitting in the car and any song that came on the radio he would sing along with it. Even if the words were all wrong. The man could dance. I used to be so embarrassed when he would come out of nowhere with his snoop dog playing loud and him doing his little dance. I wish that my daddy was here today to see what kind of people his kids have become and to see his grand children. He is Loved and missed
I love you daddy -Danielle*

“ Daddi,
You've always given us unconditional love. No matter what or how we did things you were always there to protect and support us. Sometimes literally "bail us out". Ha!
Daddi, you've always had a way of making a serious situation ever more seriously funny! you may not have had the finances to relieve burdens but you always had a good joke or a comical twist on the situation. "laughter" is defined as "joy". I think everyone can say you led a joyous life. Loving you always, Carla.##imported-begin##Carla Butler##imported-end##

and harder still to say
Thy will be done when sorrow
come and sadness fill our day.

You're in a better place right now, than you've ever been before, all pain gone, now you are at rest, nothing can trouble you any more. It's we who feel the burden of our sadness and our grief, we have to cry, to mourn our loss before we feel relief. “ Larry,
I LOVE ME SOME YOU! I am missing you so much already. Thank you for being my "big brother". You always had my back. We had such fun together. Me and you are the last of the "Mohicans". You were so smart and so capable. What did you say, "I can read". That meant you could do it then.
You could do anything you put your mind to do. I loved that about you. Your love was unlimited and unconditional. Tell Donald, Uncle Webb, and the rest of the gang, I love them too. Peace and Blessings. Love always, JoAhne xoxox###imported-begin###JoAhne C. Penney###imported-end##
