“ To the Austin family, I would like to express my support in your time of loss. You are in my thoughts and prayers. I still can't believe the little boy I watched grow up is no longer with us. I take comfort in knowing he's in God's kingdom now. My only regret is that I cannot be there to celebrate LaVelle's life and grieve his passing. God bless you and I love you.##imported-begin##Stephanie Travis##imported-end##

“ My prayers sincerely go out to the Austin family. You've been like a 2nd family to me. LaRon is like my brother and LaVelle was such a calm, collected, and talented individual. This whole ordeal still seems unreal, but we will get through it. LaVelle I will miss those summer days on the basketball court when you would hit those jumpers against us older cats lol and when LaRon would bring you up to CMU to spend the week with us in the apt. R.I.P lil bro. May God bless the family, I love you all - Carl###imported-begin##Carl Dixon II###imported-end##

“ I am sorry to hear that you are no longer with us on Earth, but I know God doesn't make mistakes either. So as much as I am sad to see you leave, God must have called you for a bigger purpose that I will ever know. You will forever be missed. See you when I get there bro!###imported-begin##Kemon James###imported-end##

“ Ron, My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family during this time and forever more. But Always remember, that God had chosen Lavelle to be one of his soldier of angels. He will always be with you all, just remember he is there in your heart (because of the love you had), your mind (because of all of the memories you all have together). It's going to take time, but you have friends and family to help you though it all. Always and forever.##imported-begin##Rhonda Collins##imported-end##

“ Mr. LaVelle Austin was truly one of the nicest young men I have ever met. He had such a positive impact on those around him and made bad situations good. He will be missed and will forever live on in our hearts... I will miss you velle and dinner theater definitely won't be the same with out your presence....##imported-begin##Matthew Summerall##imported-end##

June 02, 2010 at 04:31 PM

“ It was a pleasure to meet this young man during Dinner Theatre. As I had said before, a young soul taken from this world before he had the chance to fully flourish. Prayerfully, this is just a case of an empty shell with a soul in heaven waiting for us to join him.##imported-begin##Edmund McDougle##imported-end##

“ LaVelle you were such a good friend to me and I will always cherish the memories that we had. I will keep you in my heart so that you will never truly be dead. I know I'll see you one day in heaven and it'll be as if you were never gone. To the family just know that you are in my prayers every nite and to LaVelle mother who I met once at dinner theatre, I can only imagine what your going through but I'm praying for you and love you b/c you created someone so beautiful. LaVelle was an angel on earth always positive:) Much love

“ I am so sorry for your loss. LaVelle is gone to soon. The bible tells us that, "death does have a sting." But, we can be encouraged, because soon that sting will be gone. Jesus tells us that, all those in the memorial tombs will hear His voice and come out. Jesus always told the truth. That will be a glorious time? Certainly, we want to do all we can to be there to welcome LaVelle back. Our God Jehovah is truly a God of comfort and not the cause of such pain. Our prayers are with you and the family. 2 Corinthians 1:3, 4; Revelations 21:3,-5 Isaiah 26:19, Proverbs 3:5-7.##imported-begin##Liz##imported-end##

“ LaVelle will always be one of my children. My memories of him playing on the block, whether it was tag football (where the kids always used me as their extra player), volleyball in the backyard or basketball in the driveway, will bring a smile to my lips and ease some of teh pain in my heart. You are in god's hand, he has called you home and their you are safe with your heavenly father. God Bless. Love, Carol - otherwise known as Ms. T.##imported-begin##Carol Taylor##imported-end##

“ You brought so much joy to the BGSU Dinner Theatre Family LaVelle. I remember the day we met so clearly because I told you that you reminded me so much of my oldest son. I thought it was so funny that you wanted to play a tough guy role, but your true demeanor was so gentle and kind. You pulled it off! You were great! On behalf of Bowling Green State University Office of Multicultural Affairs, I extend our condolences to your family. I miss you and I love you LaVelle.##imported-begin##Mrs. Sheila Brown##imported-end##

“ LaVelle, you were a great friend to me. This is the first time I lost a close friend, so the pain hurts that much more. The six years I've known you throughout Southfield High and outside of school really made me realize how great of a friend you were. Now that you're gone, on behalf of all your friends, I'd like to give you my appreciation and gratitude for being in our lives. I will NEVER forget about you, Velle. Rest In Peace.##imported-begin##Brannon Bass##imported-end##

“ I sincerely offer my condolence. Mr. Austin’s death has no doubt cast a shadow over you as you go about your daily life because death brings us face-to-face with the fact that he is gone too soon. Despite the pain of grief, let it be your resolve to continue to work your way through heartache and sorrow.

Times like this make us sad. But, there is “a time to weep.” (Ecclesiastes 3:4) Yet you can have the hope of seeing your love one. “Do not let your be troubled”. (John 14:27) We may feel paralyzed by a tragedy such as this. Remember: God can help you to endure any and every problem they may face. He will give you the “power beyond what is normal” to go from one day to the next. (2 Corinthians 4:7) Mr. Austin’s footprints that were left will always be seen. The sands of time will not wash them away.

I did not know Mr. Austin personally. I read his obituary. May you experience comfort during this difficult time.
